

Final seminar of the BuSK project

How to listen to locals in land use planning?

11-12 February 2019

Arctic Centre, Rovaniemi, Finland

Monday 11.2.

18 – 21 Get together, Pilke building, Ounasjoentie 6, 96200 Rovaniemi

Tuesday 12.2.

8:30 Registration

9:00-9:15 Introduction and opening words: Seija Tuulentie, Luke

Theme I: Why and how to make local voice heard? Chair: Seija Tuulentie

9:15-9:40 Is there subsidiarity in the world of two hundred independent nations?

Antti Liikkanen, MD, former Member of EU Committee of Regions

9:40-10:00 How do you conserve, protect, live and work in peripheral rural regions?

John McDonagh, NUIG, Ireland

10:00-10:20 Land use issues in reindeer herding. Sweden, Gran Sameby & Per

Sandström, SLU, Sweden

10:20-10:30 Comment: ILK in land use planning - Finnish perspective. Tuomas Aslak

Juuso, The Sámi Parliament, Finland

10:30-10:40 Comment: Gender perspective. Gun Lidestav, SLU, Sweden

10:40-11:00 Possibilities of 'social license to operate' in various land use modes. Arvid

Viken and Gaute Svensson, UiT, Norway, Leena Suopajärvi, University of

Lapland, Finland

11:00-11:20 Coffee break

Theme II: How to gather and use local knowledge in planning?

Chair: Ari Nikula

11:20-11:40 Participatory methods to increase local voice in land use planning.

Per Sandström & Stefan Sandström, SLU, Sweden

11:40-12:00 Reconciling forestry with other land use issues – participation in focus.

Kii Korhonen, Metsähallitus, Finland

12:00-12:20 Challenges of new land use modes to the farming community, Case

Sandoy. Gestur Hovgaard, University of Faroe Islands and Tordis á Rógvi,

Visit Sandoy, Faroe Islands

12:20-12:40 Participatory knowledge for Unesco World Heritage Site in Greenland. Karl

Zinglarsen, GINR & Hans Holt Poulsen, Qeqqata municipality, Greenland

12:40-13:00 The use of local knowledge in land use planning in Enontekiö region,

Finland. Minna Turunen & Inkeri Markkula, Arctic Centre, University of

Lapland, Finland

13:00-14:00 Lunch break

Theme II: How to gather and use local knowledge in planning?

Chair: Leena Suopajärvi

- 14:00-14:20 Growing tourism and local societies – Iceland example. Rannveig Ólafsdóttir, University of Iceland
- 14:20-14:30 Comment: Developing rural tourism in Rovaniemi. Erkki Kautto, CEO, Naka Consulting Oy
- 14:30-14:50 Mining and local society in Kittilä – results from PPGIS query. Mikko Jokinen, Luke and Anna Kantola, University of Lapland, Finland
- 14:50-15:00 Comment from Mining industry. Anitta Alajoutsijärvi, Agnico Eagle
- 15:00-15:20 Transboundary PPGIS – example from Kilpisjärvi/Reisa. Ari Nikula, Luke, Finland
- 15:20-15:30 Comment: PPGIS information in developing transboundary Halti co-operation. Pertti Itkonen, Metsähallitus, Finland
- 15:30-16:00 Coffee break

Theme III: How to develop participatory processes?

- 16:00-17:00 Panel discussion: What are the main land use issues in northern periphery and how to better listen to the locals?
Chair: Rannveig Ólafsdóttir, University of Iceland
Participants: Seija Tuulentie, John McDonagh, Gun Lidestav, Ragnheidur Bogadóttir, Rune Benonissen, Sipi Hintsanen

Welcome!

If you have any questions concerning the event, please contact project coordinator
Seija Tuulentie

seija.tuulentie@luke.fi

+358 295324438

www.luke.fi/busk

